What a wonderful world you'll discover at Satchmo SummerFest!

The spirit of Satchmo lives at this free weekend-long party for Pops in the birthplace of jazz. Enjoy Louis Armstrong-inspired exhibits, children's activities and special "Red Beans & Ricely Yours" dishes. Take part in a jazz mass, a second-line parade, a "Satchmo Club Strut" and more.

Celebrate Armstrong's legacy with a music festival featuring some of New Orleans' best traditional, contemporary and brass band jazz performers – Michael White's Original Liberty Jazz Band, Dukes of Dixieland, Kermit Ruffins & the Barbecue Swingers, Donald Harrison, Jr., Germaine Bazzle, Dejan's Olympia Brass Band and others.

Learn fascinating details about Armstrong's New Orleans and how he influenced musicians during edutaining sessions with local, national and international scholars and enthusiasts –journalist and jazz critic Stanley Crouch; Michael Cogswell, Director of the Louis Armstrong House & Archives and George Avakian, famed record producer of several Satchmo classics, among others.
